To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing to provide a reference for Noel Calatrava, who has been employed with Sterling Supplies as an Estimator for nearly four years. During his tenure, Noel consistently demonstrated a high level of professionalism, dedication, and expertise in his role.

Noel's responsibilities included preparing accurate cost estimates, analyzing project requirements, and working closely with our project management team to ensure the successful completion of numerous projects. His attention to detail, analytical skills, and ability to work under pressure have been invaluable to our organization.

Noel's performance has always met or exceeded our expectations. He is a reliable and diligent employee who consistently delivers high-quality work. His ability to communicate effectively and collaborate with colleagues has greatly contributed to the positive work environment at Sterling Supplies.

Unfortunately, due to a recent shift in our business focus, we have had to make the difficult decision to discontinue our project division and concentrate solely on our wholesale operations. As a result, we can no longer retain Noel's services. This decision is in no way a reflection of Noel's performance or abilities, but rather a necessary step for the company's strategic realignment.

I am confident that Noel will be a valuable asset to any organization he joins. He has our highest recommendation, and we wish him all the best in his future endeavors.

Should you require any further information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Luke Way
