Profile

As an Estimator, I have a keen eye for detail and a strong understanding of project costs. With expertise in using estimating software and tools, I provide accurate cost estimates by considering materials, labor, equipment, and overhead expenses. I excel in analyzing project requirements, conducting material take-offs, and collaborating with stakeholders to ensure precise estimates. By staying updated with industry practices, I deliver valuable insights and recommendations to optimize cost efficiency while maintaining quality. With my analytical mindset and effective communication skills, I contribute to successful project outcomes.
