VOLUNTEERING

Russia

Volunteer Service and Community Support

Volunteer Work

As an international student in Russia during the challenging times of the COVID-19 pandemic, I volunteered to teach English and support social projects, including initiatives at the Belgorod Regional Clinical Hospital. My efforts focused on empowering children from orphanages and underprivileged families by improving their English language skills, helping them unlock better personal and professional opportunities. Despite the restrictions and uncertainties of the pandemic, I also contributed to community initiatives aimed at addressing local social challenges, fostering development, and making a positive impact on the lives of those in need.

PROJECTS & RESEARCH

Theses & Final Year Project: Sports Complex

Designed and managed the execution of a Sports Complex, focusing on project management principles.

Conducted feasibility studies, budgeting, and resource allocation to ensure project success.

Collaborated with a multidisciplinary team to address engineering challenges and deliver a functional facility.
